Doing what is right!

- Appeal to everyone's conscience
- Address our value system and the morality in society that has been eroded
- Politicians and leaders are benchmarked on material wealth as opposed to contribution in society
- Pride of South Africans need to be restored
- Fairness – deliver value and be remunerated appropriately

What can we expect?

Immediate Actions

Infrastructure Roadmap

Independent Infrastructure Advisory Panel of experts to the Presidency – free of departmental and policy bias

National Treasury to focus on procurement policy and its consistent execution across all spheres of Government.

All organs of state to employ procurement and Infrastructure teams to set up rules and thereafter manage infrastructure delivery in an appropriate manner

Auditor General to ensure compliance to policy and governance by all organs of State through the Audit process

CESA companies to offer capacity, skill and competence either in capacity building roles, advisory roles or detailed execution roles in design and contract management

CESA Manifesto

Collaborate with SAICE, SAFCEC, SBTACO BBCBE to ensure that ECSA drive Quality standards at universities and professional accreditation

Collaborate with industry bodies for delivering increased programmes for skills development and training.

Develop pilot teams for capacity building – MOU with COGTA and other ministries

Working with CSIR and Universities to promote research and innovation in this sector

Through advocacy, support and publicity hold members, partners, stakeholders and clients accountable to the roles and responsibilities they have assumed in Infrastructure delivery.
